Passport to Wellness—Student Program

The Passport to Wellness program is back! Designed to support the six dimensions of student health: physical, social, spiritual, psychological, occupational, and intellectual, the Passport to Wellness program hopes to help you achieve a fuller measure of health and a better quality of life. It is a joint project presented by Campus Life Services, Center for Gender Equity, Medical Student Well-Being Program, Office of Student Life, Office of Career & Professional Development, Student Activity Center, and Student Health Services. For more information about this program, visit www.ucsf.edu/passport.

The following Passport to Wellness programs are cosponsored by Arts & Events and OSL:

Live Theater: SF Shakes Presents Twelfth Night

Twelfth Night, a beloved tale of mixed-up romance, has long been regarded as Shakespeare's greatest comic achievement. Rich comic characters, mistaken identity, and the search for true love will captivate you. The cast is on the move, bringing this live performance to venues around the Bay Area; and they even bring a set! Come early, seats will be at a premium.
