Introduction

UCSF Housing Services provides the Short Term Lodging Guide to assist visiting professors, hospital patients, returning alumni, conference attendees and students’ families with temporary lodging, and to help new students until they find permanent accommodations.

Our website, http://www.housing.ucsf.edu provides access to current off-campus rental listings as well as short term lodging resources. This guide’s listings are grouped according to UCSF campus locations: Parnassus, Mission Bay and Mount Zion. Some lodging establishments are along MUNI Public Transportation routes for easy access to other UCSF campus locations. Please refer to the symbols key below and the San Francisco map on page 12 to view each establishment’s location.

Important Information

These listings are based solely on information provided by the managers and owners of the lodging establishments listed in this guide. These properties are not affiliated with UCSF, and Housing Services does not investigate, endorse or guarantee the accommodations listed. It is advisable to make reservations in advance and, if possible, to visit the property prior to making final commitments. Please inquire about UCSF discounts or special rates that may be available.
