Save-the Date: September 17th and 18th

Charge Across Town’s

EV Expo at Justin Herman Plaza

Please join Charge Across Town, the San Francisco Department of the Environment, the Business Council on Climate Change, San Francisco business leaders, the leading manufacturers of cars and EV charging stations, along with many of our community partners for San Francisco’s first ever EV Expo, September 17-18 at Justin Herman Plaza, on the Embarcadero.

Many thanks to our sponsors:

---

Come see and DRIVE the latest all electric and plug-in hybrid cars. Highlights include:

- Toyota will be launching its new all electric RAV4 EV, and showing its Prius Plug-in;
- PG&E will show an extended range electric (eREV) pickup truck from VIA Motors.
- Nissan will be demonstrating its popular Leaf electric car.
- DriveNow will be debuting its ActiveE premium car sharing service.
- Sunpower will be demonstrating an EV solar charging solution.
- Honda will be there with the new Honda FIT EV

And there is more...See the Ford Focus, and Mitsubishi MiEV, along with Zipcar and City Car Share electric vehicles; and finally the luxury cars Fisker Karma and the Tesla Model S!

Learn about San Francisco’s commitment to be the EV Capital of America and help us get San Francisco EV Ready!

What You Need to Know

www.chargeacrosstown.com/ev-week

Monday – Tuesday, September 17-18, 2012

11:00 AM – 5:00 PM

Justin Herman Plaza, The Embarcadero

With a Noontime DJ, Andy Maroney, sponsored by TRI Commercial

Like us on Facebook
Follow Us on Twitter