

UCSF Alternative Transit (“D”) Parking Permit Single Day Permits

UCSF Transportation Services offers single---day parking permits for eligible UCSF faculty, staff, trainees and students who commute by an alternative transportation mode at least 4 of 5 days per week.

“Alternative transportation” includes vanpool, carpool, bicycle, and/or public transit.

What are the guidelines?

- “D” permits are issued only to UCSF faculty, staff, trainees and students who would otherwise qualify for a monthly parking permit at their primary work site. See http://campusliveservices.ucsf.edu/transportation/services/parking/permit\_parking for permit types and permit eligibility information.
- “D” permits are available to UCSF faculty, staff, trainees and students who commute to campus using alternative transit modes at least 4 of 5 days per week (80%).
- To sign up, complete a “D” Parking Permit Application form and email the application to Patricia McGovern (patricia.mcgovern@ucsf.edu).
- Once eligibility has been verified, “D” permits can be purchased for $5 each fiscal year (Payment can be made by cash, check or credit card); displaying the “D” permit allows the permit holder to pay a daily fee of $13.00 through PayByPhone; go here to setup a PayByPhone account: <https://paybyphone.com> or download the PayByPhone parking app on your mobile device.
- “D” permits are issued only to those who do not possess a regular monthly parking permit.
- Monthly permit holders must relinquish their permit(s) before they can purchase a “D” permit.
- “D” permits are non-refundable and non-transferable.
- “D” permits can only be used no more than once a week.
- “D” permits are not eligible in the Parnassus Millberry Union garage.
